How to Age Disgracefully
Clare Pooley

When the city council threatens to sell the doomed community center building, the members of the Social Club join forces with their tiny friends in the daycare next door—as well as the teenaged father of one of the toddlers and a geriatric dog—to save the building. Together, this group's unorthodox methods may actually work, as long as the police don't catch up with them first.

PUBLIC ISSUES NON-FICTION BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Volunteer Cindy Palmquist is challenging your thinking every month on the 4th Tuesday of the month from 9:00-10:00 am with our non-fiction book discussion group centered on public issues, history, current events and other non-fiction topics. The Public Library of Brookline (Coolidge Corner Branch) will have copies of the books available several weeks ahead of each meeting. Suggestions for future titles are encouraged.

The Soul of an Octopus: A Surprising Exploration into the Wonder of Consciousness
Sy Montgomery

In pursuit of the wild, solitary, predatory octopus, popular naturalist Sy Montgomery has practiced true immersion journalism. From New England aquarium tanks to the reefs of French Polynesia and the Gulf of Mexico, she has befriended octopuses.

CURRENT EVENTS

Current Events meets every Friday morning 10:30 am-12:00 pm Come share your thoughts and interact with others about what is going on in today's world, whether it be local, national or international. It is a fun and informative event for all.

We are all rewarded when our group attendance reaches a specified number. That reward is in the form of a pizza party, held once a month, on the Friday following our attendance goal. Come and join us!
