

Charlie Eagle

Charlie Eagle is the CEO of Art-Craft Optical, originated in 1918, the oldest US Eyewear Manufacturer producing military flight and combat eyewear since WW1.

He's a Syracuse University graduate, Class of 1995. He has participated in several marathons, including: Chicago Live and Chicago Virtual, London Live and London Virtual, Marine Corp Live (2025), and New York 2025 and NY Virtual. He's a skier, yoga enthusiast, hiker, and caretaker of his elderly parents.

"Over the last five years or so I've watched my father's health deteriorate, in particular with Alzheimer's. My father is fortunate in that he has family members, a wife, and resources to provide for his care. I can only imagine how many other seniors don't have the resources of a supportive network to lean on. The Brookline Senior Center provides a network and lifeline to support seniors stay active, belong to a community and keep functional. I'm happy to support the mission and be a proud member of the team."