

 Downsizing and Decluttering * Donation Information

Furniture and Household Items

Habitat for Humanity ReStore

1580 VFW Parkway, West Roxbury

617-327-1170

habitatbostonrestore.org

*In addition to household items, other acceptable items include appliances (less than 8 years old), flooring, hardware, building materials, tools, and furniture. All items can be dropped at the store during business hours; pick-up is available for a small fee.

Welcome Home

1191 Washington Street REAR (entrance on Dustan Street), West Newton

617-454-4795

www.welcomehomemass.org/

*Acceptable donations include small kitchen appliances, pots/pans, bakeware, sheets, blankets, towels, & home goods such as paintings, curtains, lamps, and mirrors.

Furnishing Hope

131 Mount Auburn Street Level B Cambridge, MA 02138

857-229-7528

www.furnishinghopema.org/

*Donations of home goods including kitchen items, unopened toiletries, lamps, children's items including wall art, play mats, and décor can be dropped off at their Cambridge location. Furniture items can be dropped off at their location in Acton, MA or picked up for a fee.

Clothing

Helpsy

1-800-244-6350

www.helpsy.com/find-a-bin

Acceptable items include clothing, footwear, linens, & accessories, such as bathrobes, gloves, hats, and bags. Helpsy drop-bins are scattered throughout Boston & Brookline. Pick-ups for larger collections can be scheduled. Helpsy donates items that are in good condition and recycles items that are too worn.

Epilepsy Foundation

1-888-322-8209

www.donateclothes.epilepsynewengland.org/location-finder

Acceptable items include clothing, shoes, jewelry, and other fashion accessories. To find a drop box location or schedule a pick-up, please visit their website.

Big Brother Big Sister

508-466-4590

www.bbbsfoundation.org/

Acceptable items include clothing, musical instruments, very small household items, and limited books/DVDs.

Books

Boston Book Removal

bostonbookremoval.com/

Boston Book Removal provides FREE, scheduled pick-ups of books, vinyl records and CDs. Please note that there is a 4 box minimum for pick-ups. There is no maximum limit.

Bay State Books

www.baystatebooks.com/

Recycles books that are not appropriate for donation (stained, missing covers, etc.) Various donation bins located around Greater Boston.

Friends of the Brookline Library

www.brooklinelibrary.org/community/friends/

Friends of the Brookline Library is a non-profit membership organization that provides special resources for the Public Library of Brookline. The Friends conduct an ongoing book sale at all three Brookline libraries and proceeds support library programs and staff development.

More than Words

781-788-0035

shop.mtwyouth.org

Accepts gently used books, CDs, DVDs, LP Records, and video games in original cases/sleeves. Items can be dropped at various boxes around the city and pick-ups can be scheduled on their website.

Prison Book Program

United First Parish Church

1306 Hancock Street (Basement), Quincy

prisonbookprogram.org/donate-books/guidelines/

A full list of donation guidelines can be found on their website. Books can be dropped off at the United Parish Church.

Junk Removal

Lugaway

617-893-9824

www.lugaway.com

Junkluggers

774-855-6475

www.junkluggers.com/greater-boston/

Specialty Cleanouts

BioOne

Cameron Mughmaw: 978-868-0886

www.biooneinc.com/south-shore-ma/